

Mendocino Chapter CDS
Schooling Dressage Clinic
with Tracey Hill
October 16-17, 2010
Whitewater Hanoverians
Fort Bragg, CA

Tracey began riding at age 8 on Cape Cod in Massachusetts. She worked her way through the levels of Pony Club and eventually focused solely on dressage. Since 1995 Tracey has earned her USDF Bronze, Silver and Gold medals. She has also graduated from the USDF "L" judges program with distinction. In 1999 Tracey moved to California to work for Steffen Peters. Tracey currently clinics with Alfredo Hernandez, but has also studied with Conrad Schumacher, Axel Steiner, Gary Rockwell and Dr. Volker Moritz. <http://www.tracey-hill.com>

Individual lessons will begin immediately following the Halloween Schooling Dressage Show on Saturday, October 16, 2010, and continue on Sunday, October 17, 2010, beginning at 9 am.

Priority of ride times will be given to out-of-town riders who wish to take a lesson following the show before they travel home on Saturday. The lesson may consist of further critique of a previously ridden test, riding an additional test with critique, or work on specific movements or areas of difficulty for either horse and/or rider.

$100/45 minutes

Contact Ellen Schlosser at 707-964-9051 or beachrdr@msn.com for more information and to schedule ride times.
